SACRIFICIAL LOVE

“Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends.” John 15:13

Dear Friends

As we journey towards Easter let us reflect on the stages of Jesus’ journey as He prepared to face his arrest, torture and death.

He set his face like a flint and went to Jerusalem knowing that his death would come. He entered into the praises of many who welcomed his arrival. When faced with the decision ‘Yes or No’ in the Garden, Jesus made a choice for you and me; a choice, an act of the will, based on sacrificial love. YET, His love for us knew no bounds and extended to all. Jesus gave his life a ransom for many. On the cross we see the depth and power of God’s love. Now we live in resurrection power. Praise God!

You are my hiding place, Lord. You know me by name. My thoughts and deeds are seen by you. I come to you in joy. I come to you with a weary soul. I come to you in grief and sorrow. I need the love from your loving heart that I may be at peace. Reach out and touch my heart. Reach out and draw me from the dark and let your love in. Your love fills me with joy, peace and hope. Amen
